
AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ORGANBUILDERS

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION – 2022

AIO Scholarships are for organbuilders or maintenance technicians with more than one year of full-time (or equivalent part-time) experience. Applicants may be Associate or Affiliate AIO members, or non-members.

To be considered, applicants should submit a letter of recommendation from any Regular or Charter AIO Member, and also submit a brief summary of their work experience as a builder or technician. Please submit them together, and mail to AIO, PO Box 1695, Grass Valley CA 95945. Scanned applications may be emailed to execsec@pipeorgan.org.

Applications must be postmarked by July 31, 2022, in order to be considered. The Sunday through Wednesday registration fee will be paid by the AIO, but any pre- or post-convention events requiring payment will be paid by the scholarship holder. Applicants will be notified by August 15 regarding this award. Recipients must complete a convention registration form when it becomes available.

Those who miss the deadline or are not awarded a scholarship may apply again next year. Scholarships are awarded only once; recipients may not apply in subsequent years.

Non-members applying for this scholarship may also wish to apply for AIO membership. The member writing the letter of recommendation may also sign the new member nomination form.

By signing below, I consent to the following:

I have enclosed a letter of recommendation as well as a brief resume of my work in the organbuilding field. If awarded a scholarship, I agree to make every effort to attend the convention. I agree to notify the AIO by September 10 if I am unable to attend. Failure to do so will eliminate me from consideration for future scholarships.

I understand that this scholarship waives the registration fee for Sunday through Wednesday. I agree to submit a registration form as they are available. I will pay for any convention “extras” – pre- and post-convention tours, etc. – when submitting my registration form. I agree to pay for all travel expenses including hotel accommodations and meals not included in the convention registration.
